CHEF MASSIMO MANCARELLA

BRINDISI | ITALY

Born and raised in Brindisi, Puglia Chef Massimo Mancarella discovered his passion for food while watching his grandmother Anna prepare the classic Sunday family lunch.

After learning the basic techniques of Italian cuisine at the hospitality institute in his city, Massimo had the opportunity to travel the world. He's perfected his craft with over 10 years working as a Chef in Egypt, The Netherlands and Spain which have contributed to his love of culture, people and his culinary knowledge.

Chef Massimo's desire to deeply explore the history and culture of Italian cuisine led him to the prestigious ALMA University, located in Parma, Italy. He graduated with top marks and a deeper knowledge of the stories and soul of Italian cuisine.

After gaining work experience in Michelin-Starred restaurants Massimo returned to his homeland, Puglia where he currently works as a private Chef for events and in luxury villas.

"Fill the head before the stomach" is his culinary philosophy: A dish, an ingredient and a recipe almost always have a story to tell. It's the anecdote and legend that we together will carry together.

You don't have to worry, the team at The Chef & The Dish has converted most of these weights into easy to measure volume measurements for you. However, as you further your culinary journey and start reading recipes and cooking dishes from around the world, you may want to buy a weight scale to translate some of the recipes for yourself. Weighing your ingredients remains the most accurate way to measure food.
